“For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s.” (Romans 14:8)

This is the essence of stewardship – everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God daily and ask Him how He is calling you to live the life that He intended for you.

HAPPY GRANDPARENTS DAY

"Nobody can do for little children what grandparents do. Grandparents sort of sprinkle stardust over the lives of little children." (Alex Haley)

Grandparents are important to children in so many ways. They have patience and time when parents are often busy. They have stories to tell and interesting games to play. They are also good for treats and spoiling, which we all need from time to time!

In American, National Grandparents Day was proclaimed in 1978 by President Jimmy Carter at the instigation of a housewife from West Virginia, Marian McQuade.

According to the National Grandparents Day website, the aim of National Grandparents Day is:

- To honour grandparents
- To give grandparents an opportunity to show love for their children's children
- To help children become aware of the strength, information and guidance older people can offer.

RESPECT LIFE

"By our Baptism, we are members of Christ's body and sharers in his mission. Imitating Christ, we must care for all members of our communities, honoring each person as unique, sacred, and created in the image of God." ~ USSCB, "Open Our Hearts" Bulletin Insert

We pray for solidarity and peace in our global human family that we may work together to protect the lives of those who are most vulnerable..

COMMUNITY

PHONE BANKING

Faith in Action Alabama (FIAAL) continues to call all to participate in voting in our upcoming Presidential election. Resurrection Catholic Church is calling on anyone interested in doing phone banking on Tuesday or Thursday evenings from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. to contact Sr. Gilda at (334) 414-4476.

VOTE BY MAIL

From the USPS website

The American public can rely on the United States Postal Service to fulfill our role in the electoral process. We provide a secure, efficient and effective way for citizens to participate when policymakers decide to use mail as part of their elections. We have a robust and tested process for proper handling and timely delivery of Election Mail. Due to COVID-19, there's been an increase in the number of jurisdictions expanding or initiating mail-in voting options. Our national education effort keeps local and state election officials informed about mailing procedures and our operational standards. We're also educating the public about how to successfully use the mail.

We protect your mail - The United States Postal Inspection Service is responsible for ensuring the safety of all mail, including Election Mail. To report law enforcement matters relating to Election Mail call a Postal Inspector at 877-876-2455. For general information about the Inspection Service please visit www.USPIS.gov.
