“He asked them, ‘Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?’” – MARK 4:40

Do you really trust God? Is God your first choice or last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday or do you live the Gospel message every day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now, open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him throughout the day, in all circumstances.

A PRAYER FOR FATHERS' DAY

Good and gracious God, you showed us the importance of fathers when you chose Joseph to care for your Son.

Bless all the fathers who share your unconditional love with their children.

Bring comfort to those fathers who have lost children, or are estranged from their children, and all those who mourn the loss of their beloved fathers.

Share your blessings with all those who yearn for a father's love and heal those wounded by a father's fallibilities.

Bless all men who mentor and nurture children who are not their own and become fathers to children who need them.

Help us, the sons and daughters of their hearts and bodies, to return their love and honor them as Jesus honored Joseph.

Amen

COMMUNITY

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY INITIATIVE ON CATHOLIC SOCIAL THOUGHT AND PUBLIC INITIATIVE

Voter Participation and the Common Good
As the United States continues to be divided over what happened in the 2020 presidential election, Congress and the states are deciding the rules which will govern future elections and debating issues of voter participation and suppression. The House has passed and sent to the Senate sweeping legislation to expand voting rights, change campaign finance, limit partisan gerrymandering, and create new ethics rules. Several states are adopting new laws which in some cases limit or restrict voter access. Some say the focus should be on greater election security; others insist the primary goal should be greater voter participation. There is also debate about whether these issues are best handled at the federal or state level.

Join the public dialogue on Monday, June 21, 2021 from 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. with Sr. Anita Baird, DHM, past president of the National Black Sisters Conference, Justin Giboney, political strategist in Atlanta, Michael Steele, former chairperson of the RNC, and Karen Tumulty, a Washington Post columnist.
