“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts.” MARK 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God’s providential care. Think of all the material things “we can’t live without” in today’s world. We make our life’s journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don’t become “slaves” to wanting to acquire more things.

A PRAYER FOR TRAVELERS

T is for Time - “Lord bless the time we spend together. May we use it wisely. Help us to nurture strong relationships and create wonderful memories together. May the words we speak encourage & build one another up. Make this trip a time of bonding.” Numbers 6:24-26; Psalm 90:12; Deuteronomy 11:19; Psalm 111:4; 1 Thessalonians 5:11

R is for Rest - May this trip be a time of rest, relaxation, and rejuvenation. Use the break from routine to renew our strength and restore our health. Let us catch up on sleep and return home refreshed and ready to do the work You’ve created us to do. Matthew 11:28; Isaiah 40:28-31; Psalm 147:3; Psalm 127:2; Ephesians 2:10

I is for Insight - Use this vacation to give us a fresh perspective, Lord. Help us see people and circumstances as you see them. Bring to our attention any wrong attitudes, bad habits, or misplaced priorities and give us the courage to make needed adjustments. James 4:13-15; Isaiah 55:7-9; Proverbs 19:21; Psalm 119:98-100; Psalm 139:23-24

P is for Protection - Watch over us as we travel, Lord. Build a hedge of protection around us and keep us safe. Guard us against illness and mishaps. Help us see and flee from any dangers we can avoid and stand boldly against any threats we can’t. Psalm 32:8; Psalm 121:7-8; Isaiah 26:3; Psalm 37:23-24; Proverbs 22:3; 2 Timothy 1:7

NATIONAL MINORITY MENTAL HEALTH MONTH

July is National Minority Mental Health Month. Mental health conditions do not discriminate based on race, color, gender or identity. Anyone can experience the challenges of mental illness regardless of their background. However, background and identity can make access to mental health treatment much more difficult. Bebe Moore Campbell National Minority Mental Health Awareness Month was established in 2008 to start changing this.

Each year millions of Americans face the reality of living with a mental health condition. Taking on the challenges of mental health conditions, health coverage and the stigma of mental illness requires all of us. In many communities, these problems are increased by less access to care, cultural stigma and lower quality care.

Strength Over Silence Video Series: Stories Of Courage, Culture And Community

In this ongoing docuseries, NAMI highlights perspectives on mental health across backgrounds and communities. Through candid and courageous stories of lived experience, these mental health champions share their resilience and recovery, emphasizing the importance of culture and identity in the mental health movement.
