“The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.” John 14:26

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your head, heart and mind affects your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.

El Defensor, el Espíritu Santo a quien el Padre enviará en mi nombre, les enseñará todo y les recordará todo lo que les he dicho.» Juan 14:26

El materialismo de nuestra sociedad nos atrae a concentrarnos más en lo que nosotros queremos que en lo que Dios quiere para nosotros, el relativismo de nuestro mundo nos dice que debemos ser tolerantes de todas las cosas, que no existe la verdad absoluta. Rece al Espíritu Santo para que transforme nuestras vidas y guíe nuestros pensamientos, palabras y acciones. Lo que ponemos en nuestra cabeza, corazón y mente afecta nuestras acciones. Si ponemos cosas buenas dentro saldrán cosas buenas.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Pentecost, also known as Whitsunday, is celebrated today. The word has its roots in the Greek word ‘pentecoste,’ which means ‘50th day.’ Pentecost is a major festival in the Christian church and is celebrated by believers on the Sunday that falls on the 50th day of Easter. This day is marked by Catholic priests dressing up in red robes and draping the altar of the church in red cloth. Believers would often choose to get baptised on Pentecost, and today it has become the most common day for baptism. Simply put, Pentecost marks the beginning of the Christian church’s mission to the world.
