“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” Luke 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from “emptying” ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

“Estén atentos y cuidense de toda forma de avaricia; porque aun cuando alguien tenga abundancia, su vida no consiste en tener bienes” Lucas 12:15

El mensaje del Evangelio es contrario a la cultura moderna que continuamente trata de convencernos de que nuestra alegría viene de los bienes materiales que poseemos. Que mientras más cosas adquirimos, más felices seremos. Jesús nos muestra que nuestra verdadera alegría viene de nuestros dones “invisibles” como el amor, la misericordia y el perdón. La verdadera alegría viene de “vaciamos” nosotros mismos, dando de nosotros en lugar de tomar. No somos llamados a atesorar sino a compartir. La verdadera alegría viene de tener un estilo de vida agradecido y generoso; de transformarnos para estar más “centrados en Dios” y ser menos “egocéntricos”.

FAREWELL TO OUR CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA INTERNS

Today we bid farewell to Kayla Tingley and Tyrica Miller, our two interns from The Catholic University of America who have spent the summer working in all of the Missions programs, including assisting with the summer program at the school, folding bulletins on Fridays in the Parish office, working with Sr. Gilda in the S.A.L.T. program and delivering meals to seniors in the Interfaith Community Outreach Program. They have been a wonderful blessing to our community and we are going to miss them tremendously. Kayla is pursuing a degree in Sociology with a minor in Politics while Tyrica is pursuing a nursing degree. Both young ladies are involved with the Black Student Alliance on CUA’s campus where Kayla is the President, and Tyrica is the Vice President. In that capacity they are planning a Black Catholic History Month Gospel Mass in November with Fr. Manuel as the guest celebrant and Cliff Petty as the guest musician so we will certainly maintain contact with them.

We wish Kayla and Tyrica every blessing as they continue their life journey and pray that they will return to Montgomery to spend time with us again.

RESPECT LIFE

"A woman with an unexpected pregnancy may have any number of fears and challenges: facing judgment from her friends and family, losing her job or housing, or being abandoned by the father of her child. Following Mary's example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding, and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children."

*USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities
"Called to Serve Moms in Need"*

We pray for women who are unexpectedly pregnant. May they be filled with trust in God's providence and lovingly welcome the gift of their child.
