A REFLECTION ON THE FIRST READING: DEUTERONOMY 8:2-3, 14b-16a

HUNGRY GROUCHES

How do you act when you get hungry? If dinner is late or service is slow, are you known for your patience? Moses told the people that God made them hungry in the desert to find out how they would handle it. Would they still keep the commandments even when they were hungry?

Imagine being judged on how you acted when you were hungry. Most of us would want to be judged in other circumstances: on those occasions when we helped our neighbor, when we gave a generous gift, or surprised someone with a compliment. But how we act when we are hungry? That is not fair.

In reality, we are hungry all the time. We hunger for justice, for love, for faith, and for community. We hunger for deeper union with the God who made us. If God wonders how we behave when we are hungry, the evidence mounts up every moment of every day.

The manna that God sent to the desert fed hungry bellies, and the Word that God spoke through Moses fed hungry spirits. If people responded in gratitude, they pleased God.

When we gather for Eucharist, God's Word forms us and God's food feeds us. If we respond in gratitude, we please God.

Prayer for Healing and Comfort

Dear Lord, On this Corpus Christi day, we bring before you those in need of healing – body, mind, and spirit. May your precious body and blood be their source of strength, comfort, and restoration. Touch them with your divine healing grace, dear Jesus, and grant them solace in their suffering. Our heartfelt gratitude goes out to you, the Divine Physician, for your unwavering care. Amen.
